

Songbird

G Talking to the songbird yesterday , Flew me to a past not far a-way Em

Em She's a little pirate in my mind. Singing songs of love to pass the time. G

G Gonna write a song so she can see . Give her all the love she gives to me Em

Em Talk of better days that have yet to come . Never felt this love from anyone G

G She's not anyone, She's not anyone She's not anyone Em G

G A man can never dream these kind of things. Especially when she came and spread

Em her wings

Em Whispered in my ear the things I'd like, Then she flew away into the night G

G Gonna write a song so she can see , Give her all the love she gives to me Em

Em Talk of better days that have yet to come. Never felt this love from anyone G

G She's not anyone, She's not anyone She's not anyone Em G
